and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

The latest report from Orville Roland at the BCD office shows the paving program for Hamlin will become a reality with the completion of at least the 20 blocks needed.

He said this week that he has several more blocks that are nearly completed and he expected them to be ready in time to be paved in this program.

Some of the property owners who have not been able to complete their blocks yet seem to be of the opinion that it is too late to get in the program. This was not the intention of the August 20 deadline, this deadline was set by the city to give the engineer at least 20 blocks for the contractors to base their bids upon. Now that this has been completed and the paving program can be carried out as planned, other blocks can be added at the bid price as long as the contractor can get to them.

If you want your street paved in this program, you should make every effort to complete your block or blocks as soon as possible so that you will be assured of paving this year.

When the Southwestern Telephone Co. made their change over to dial here Sunday morning a large number of company officials were on hand.

Among those were J. M. Hagler, area engineer from Dallas, who had added interest in the new equipment as he was the engineer on the installation of the old switchboard installed here in November of 1930. He also stated that there was an element of the old and the new in the conversion here that made this one unique. The old was the fact that this is the last change-over in this district and the new was that this was the first use of the Micro-Relay system in this district.

ON CENTRAL — Clarence Bailey of Bailey's Department Store has his son Ralph back from a six-month tour of the Army and in the store with him. Ralph and his wife, Myrna, will make their home here.

Bailey has started an extensive remodeling job on his store this week which includes taking in the store building north of him. This will give him a 50 foot front and room to departmentalize his store.

With all of the work involved in remodeling we know that Clarence is happy to have his son helping him.

Waggoner Drug has just completed a face-lifting program on the front of their building which adds to the neatness of the downtown business district. A green aluminum front and awning was installed this week which ties in with the work done on the inside earlier.

With the football campaign just around the corner, the school is urging the Pied Piper fans to purchase season tickets. They are offering 6 tickets to the home games for $6, which is a saving of $1.50.

Even if you think you might miss one of the games you still come out ahead by buying your tickets now. I have known of less deserving causes that money has been donated to if it turns out that you miss more than one.

B. V. Newberry said this week that the season ticket sales are going real good, but he still has some good seats left. Those who have ordered their tickets are urged to pick them up as soon as possible.

Dial Change Over Made

Hamlin's dial telephone service is in use, and Gene Adkisson, manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, has expressed the company's gratitude to Hamlin subscribers for their co-operation during the conversion from manual to dial telephone service here Sunday, August 21.

The conversion was made smoothly and took place in a matter of seconds. As the hands of the clock approached 1:01 a.m. Sunday, operators began asking people to postpone their calls a few minutes. As soon as the old switchboard was cleared of calls, a signal was given to pull out the "heat coils," and the old switchboard was disconnected from Hamlin's telephones. As soon as the manual system was disconnected, word was relayed to crewmen waiting to pull the switches that would connect the new dial equipment.

The switches fell into place in a few seconds later, and the hum-m-m could be heard on the city's telephones.

"Customer co-operation aided materially in making the change smooth and trouble-free," Adkisson said. "Residents of Hamlin were 'trying out' their new dial telephones within seconds after the completion of the conversion. Within a short while, they were dialing like veterans, and operators on the dial assistance switchboard handled few calls where people had trouble getting the numbers they wanted. Numbers dialed improperly were rare."

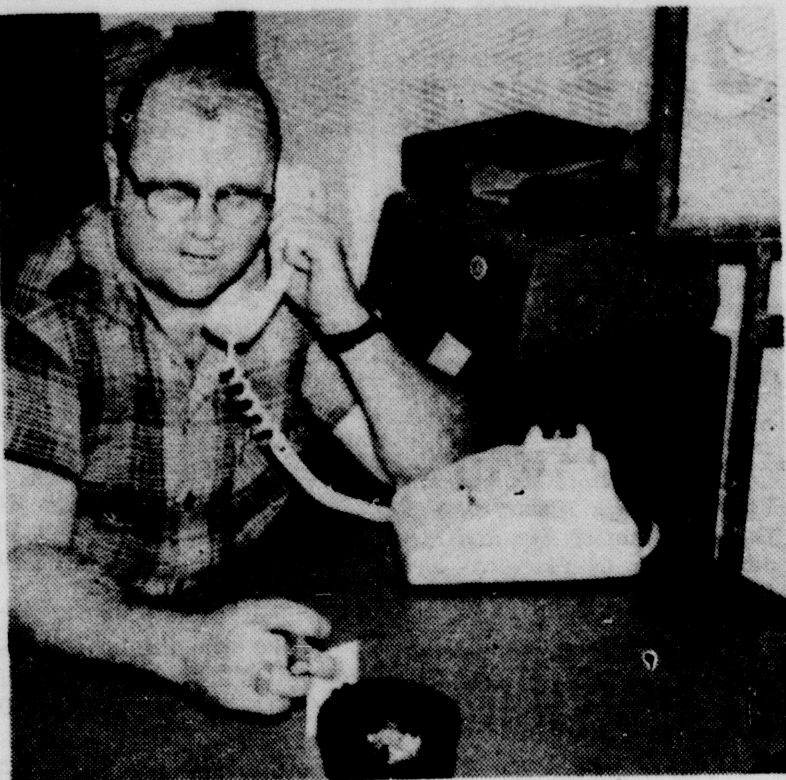

Adkisson again reminded subscribers that all telephone numbers have been changed, and that the new numbers are listed in the new directory. He explained that when a number that does not exist is dialed by mistake, the call is routed to a special "intercepting" operator who attempts to help the person calling get the correct number.

"Few calls have been intercepted, however," Adkisson said, "and that shows Hamlin people are dialing correctly and remembering to use their new directory before attempting to use the telephone."

The manager emphasized the importance of making special notes of telephones to call in case of emergency. For fire, dial SP 4-1333; police, dial SP 4-1633; for operator, dial 0.

School Starts Here Monday

After several weeks of preparation by the faculty and administration of the Hamlin Public Schools, school will be officially opened Monday.

Pre-registration for senior high school was held Monday and Tuesday with a total of 216 students registering. There are 50 seniors, 53 juniors, 53 sophomores and 60 freshmen, according to B. V. Newberry, principal of high school. There are some who have not registered and total enrollment is expected to be about 240.

In junior high, students who had not attended school in Hamlin last year pre-registered Monday and Tuesday. A total of 245 students are expected to report for opening day in junior high, as estimated by Marvin D. Carlton, principal.

A completely new schedule has been worked out for the high school classes. The tardy bell rings at 8:30 a.m. and classes are dismissed at 3:48 p.m. Four 55 minute periods are scheduled for the morning with one 45 minute and two 55 minute periods in the afternoon. Junior high students will also begin classes at 8:30 a.m.

Their lunch period will be from 12:00 to 12:40 and dismissal will be at 3:45 p.m.

With reference to school opening Superintendent C. F. Cook has noted that he and the faculty are looking for a very profitable and enjoyable school year. "If the students, faculty and parents continue to cooperate as they have in the past," he said. "I see no reason why we cannot have our best school year." He also added "We will need to have the help and co-operation of all concerned to accomplish the above."

He continued, "We as teachers, will admit that so many times we are in error, but this is only human, therefore, we must have the best of understanding and cooperation from the parent. It is very necessary that we have good conduct in our classes in order to do a good job teaching. As superintendent of schools, I am instructing all teachers in the Hamlin Public Schools that good conduct is a must, and if your child can not meet our rules, regulations and policies, it will be necessary that we take action to secure this end. I trust that every one will cooperate, (student, teacher and parent) because a good school is very necessary."

He added, "This community has shown me that they are interested in a good school. I pledge my efforts to see that you get the best school we can have in Hamlin. Please call on the teachers and administration any time you desire to discuss school pupils or just to visit our schools."

Supt. Cook has also announced the following schedule for holidays:

County Crop Expected to Top State

September 3, 1920

The great banner county of the state only exceeded Jones county which is "way out West" in the production of cotton last year by eight and one half bales of cotton. Jones Co. stands ahead of such counties as Lamar, Fannin, Kaufman, Ellis, Hunt, Hill, Grayson and Bell counties. If nothing prevents, the Jones county crop should stand first this year. But at this time, it seems that the boll worm is getting some damaging work.

Next to getting the school house and school grounds ready for school comes the children themselves. Naturally it would seem that we should think of the children first. But what good would it do to put the children in first-class condition and then send them to a dirty, dingy, ugly, unsanitary school? This summer the farmers in our county spent about $200,000 getting ready to save the wheat crop. Long before time to get into the harvest fields our men folks looked over their machinery. They saw what they would need. Everything was put in a first-class condition.

What will happen if you start your child to school unit for the time before him? He will lose time, get behind, get discouraged. It will cost you just as much to send him to school sick as well. Work will be harder for all concerned. At the end of the year your child has not harvested out much of an education. He has lost out in everything and you may have lost your child. Can you afford it?

25 YEARS AGO

First Bale Cotton Ginned Here Aug. 2

August 30, 1935

On Thursday of last week, August 2, the first 1935 bale of cotton was ginned in Hamlin.

The first bale was brought in by a Mexican by the name of O'Riveria; who works land on the Judge Bryan ranch north of Hamlin in Stonewall County. The bale was ginned at Fred H. Britton Gin's No. 1.

From every point of view, the cotton in this country is better than a year ago. It is fruiting better, the bolls are matured, and it is in most fields still fruiting. It looks as though the farmers will make all that their tickets will permit to sell without paying the "over-plus" tax.

PIGGLY WIGGLY STORE CHANGED TO "SAFEWAY" headlines this story: For many weeks workmen have been busy re-conditioning the Payne building known as the Piggly Wiggly Grocery.

This building is one of Hamlin's land marks. Built in early days and has been the scene of many leading business firms.

During the recent weeks the front has been overhauled and the famous long lawning has been removed, and old doors removed. General modernization has made it a new place.

In this week's Herald the company is making the announcements of this change. You will note that this store has expanded in scope, by adding a very commodious Frigidaire equipment. This takes care of fresh meats and also cares for a large assortment of ice-cold vegetables and fruits. This is a store that any town would be proud to have.

40 YEARS AGO—

Lions Have Ladies Night at Lake

August 31, 1945

Don't jump at conclusions. That black stuff piled high on the street side in the block south of the Herald Office is not fertilizer, but the stuff that makes a street water-tight and smooth. The Highway Department has been favoring Hamlin quite extensively the past few months, the total of which will be "elaborated" upon as soon as we see what the conclusions are to be. Hamlin has six fully granitoid paved blocks and this was the first small town to get paving along about 1908-09 or 10. It was holding fine till they began "puncturing" it for various purposes.

Our good Mexican farmer friend, C. C. Lopez, will have something to remember his "get-up-and-get" qualities next year when it is safe to plant cotton. $50 is quite a nice premium from the business firms of Hamlin. Lopez got his bale into town on August 22.

The Hamlin Lions Club entertained with Ladies' Night, Tuesday, August 21, at the Hamlin Lake. Approximately 100 guests were present, including guests from Anson, Rottan, Abilene, and Shreveport, La.

A barbecued chicken dinner, with all the trimmings, was served. A series of interesting games furnished the entertainment.

Following the social hour, Dr. Ammons of Fort Worth, the District Governor, made a short but impressive address to an enthusiastic audience.

Miss Ora Francis Steele became the bride of John B. Martin of the U. S. Navy on August 7 in a twilight service at the City Park Chapel in Brooklyn, N. Y. A chaplain of the Navy read the ceremony. Both Mr. and Mrs. Martin attended McCauley High School and Mrs. Martin graduated from Hamlin High School last year. She has been employed in Government work in the F. B. I. Department in Washington, D. C., for the past several months. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele of Plasterco. John B. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Martin of Plasterco also. He is serving his third year in the Navy.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

By VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN—Over 50,000 persons are drawing approximately one million dollars a week in unemployment compensation Texas.

Investigations have disclosed fraudulent claims. Charges already have been filed in several Texas cities, and investigation is underway statewide.

In view of the recent frauds disclosed by investigations in unemployment compensation claims," says Maurice Acers, Commissioner, "it is imperative that an already broad system of fraud detection and prevention be expanded and accelerated."

There are a number of ways TEC can catch the cheaters. And TEC is out after them now. One method is by "cross matching". This involves checking a person's unemployment claims against his earnings.

Sometimes this isn't necessary. Some people who are drawing unemployment compensation and secretly working, will betray themselves by their nervousness when they report to the local TEC office.

In one instance a truck driver applied for unemployment compensation, then got another job. When he made his weekly trip to report to the employment office, he drove up in the truck of the company employing him and double-parked in front of the TEC office.

A TEC employee asked the man why he was driving this company's truck. "Because I'm working for the company," the driver said.

This man soon found himself in court.

There are some, says a veteran TEC employee, who take the attitude: "I've earned it. Now I want to collect it." In other words, after they have worked long enough and earned enough to qualify for unemployment compensation, they feel they're entitled to quit work and collect it.

That is not the way the program is set up under the law. Here, briefly, are some of the requirements:

1. You must have built up a certain amount of work credits during the 15 months preceding application, with an employer who hires four or more persons.

2. You must have lost your job through no fault of your own.

3. You must make application with TEC for another job.

4. You must be able and available to accept another suitable job.

5. You must visit your local TEC office once a week to report your availability for work, or if you have done work, report your earnings.

For example, a woman unable to work because of pregnancy would not be eligible for unemployment compensation, even though employed by a concern participating in the program.

Conflicting opinions sometimes develop over what is another "suitable" job and who is "available" for work.

A typist who has been making $200 a month may consider a salary of $185 unsuitable. But if that is the going rate for that work in that area, TEC may decide it's suitable enough and deny unemployment compensation.

Others drawing unemployment benefits may be "available" in body only. When directed by TEC to apply for a certain job, they'll do it, but will appear so dull and uninterested that prospective employers won't hire them.

Most important to TEC is throwing a barricade in the paths of those people who just plain want to get some of the money just because it's there.

TEC also tries to alert employers to their role in halting fraud. When a former employee applies for benefits, a copy of his application is sent to the employer. If the employee quits or was fired for incompetence, it is the employer's duty to inform TEC at once.

TEC warns that if you're not willing to work at a suitable job, you cannot collect unemployment insurance. Furthermore, you cannot work, earn a salary and collect unemployment insurance at the same time.

Invariably some people try to get around TEC rules. Such persons cause trouble for their employers, who have to pay more taxes; trouble for TEC, which now is on the lookout for the chiselers; and trouble for themselves, because they are laying themselves wideopen for suits for fraudulent claims.

Taken individually, the collection by some person of from $7 to $28 a week, to which he is not entitled, may seem like peanuts. But any unchecked fraud, viewed in the light of the whole massive unemployment compensation program in Texas, could multiply itself into a million-dollar headache.

Last year $51,376,076 was paid out in Texas in unemployment benefits. This was more than was taken in in unemployment taxes from employers. Fortunately for TEC, the program has, over a period of years, built up a substantial trust fund. . . $255,534,551 to be exact . . . against bad periods.

But this fund, designed as a cushion against depression-type breadlines, can serve its purpose only, if it is not abused.

It is meant as insurance, TEC officials, not as a dole, and not to pay for vacations for those who are tired of working.

SHORT SNORTS—Texas Department of Public Safety celebrated its 25th birthday this month. Col. Homer Garrison Jr. has been director for 22 years. The patrol has grown from 140 to 773 men, but is still far short of the 2,500 estimated need. . . Personal incomes of Texans rose 5% last year bringing the annual per capita income for the state up to $1,908. . . Some 100 persons from 100 Texas counties will attend the Governor's Conference on Aging, in Austin, on September 7-8. Delegates will draft recommendations for the White House Conference on Aging.

Anyone who thinks the customer isn't important should try doing without him for 90 days.

Vacationers Urged To Take Safety Along on Trips

"Summertime is the time for fun and relaxation, but not when you're driving."

With these words, J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, reminded Texas drivers that every one wants to get in the car and go places for a day, or a month, of relaxation. Thereby crowding streets and highways throughout the State.

"Since August is one of the biggest vacation months, we're urging all travelers to take safety along on their trips. It's not to drive for relaxation, but don't relax your safety-guard," Musick said. "Too often vacation trips are planned without any thought for safety on the road, and what often starts out to be a pleasure trip ends up as another traffic tragedy."

The safety expert said that stand certain basic safety means the best way to avoid danger on a vacation trip is to under-stand and remember them. He listed these basic measures as being: Control of speed; keeping the car safety-checked and in good condition at all times; scheduling your driving for daytime hours and allowing for occasional breaks to minimize fatigue, and obeying traffic signs and signals.

"If a driver starts out on the road fully determined to follow these common sense rules to protect himself and his family in highway traffic, there is little doubt that his vacation will be safe, relaxing and fun," Musick said.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY
Long Distance Is Twice As Fast When You Call By Number

YOUR Dial Telephones ARE ON THE JOB!

Hamlin's dial telephones are on the job.

At 1:01 a.m., Sunday, this city's telephone system was changed from manual to dial operation. Although the change was made smoothly, in a matter of minutes, many months of work by scores of telephone people were required to make your dial system possible.

Dial equipment had to be manufactured and installed, a building was constructed. Thousands of complex switches and other parts had to be precision-made. Thousands of feet of tiny wires had to be arranged. Many hundreds of wire ends had to be hand-soldered.

As a result, Hamlin's telephone users can dial their calls, using up-to-date telephone equipment. On a second's notice, your system can make any one of the 100,000 interconnections possible among the city's telephones.

We are glad we're able to give Hamlin this modern dial system to meet its telephone needs, today and tomorrow.

AREA RANCHERS SPONSORING ROUND-UP FOR WTR CENTER

The cattlemen of Texas have traditionally, since the days of the open range, come to their neighbors' aid when the need arises. The cattlemen's Round-Up for crippled children is still carrying out this neighborly spirit. A hydrotherapy pool is urgently needed at the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene to provide additional physical therapy facilities for the handicapped. Cattlemen from a large geographic area have banded together to provide the pool for the crippled children.

This will be done by each rancher giving a calf, or a pen of calves, to the round-up. The calves will be sold at a special sale at the Abilene Livestock Auction Commission on Sept. 17th. This sale is in conjunction with a special feeder sale drawing buyers from all of the nation.

The idea of the Cattlemen's Round-Up came from Mr. Conda Wylie of Bronte, Texas. Mr. Wylie, who ranches in Coke and Runnels Counties, has run his cattle on the same place under the cross brand or more than fifty years. Wylie started the Round-Up with a donation of twenty calves to be delivered this fall.

A committee of more than forty ranchers has been organized under the chairmanship of Jim Skinner to carry out the plans of the Round-Up. Skinner operates under the hashknife brand which his late uncle, Mack Merchant, made familiar throughout West Texas.

The West Texas Rehabilitation Center has many things in common with the cattle industry. The center, in true Texas spirit, offers rehabilitation to crippled children and adults free of charge. The center is a private non-profit organization that was built and is operated on funds raised from donations only, with the present facilities and equipment valued at $350,000.00. The entire structure and operation has been operated without any form of government aid.

Godfrey has been a horse lover for more than 25 years. At his farm, Beacon Hill in Loudoun County, Va., he keeps horses of several different breeds. The most famous is his Palomino stallion, Catocin Gold, known as "Goldie" to the millions who have seen him on the Godfrey TV shows or in personal appearances he has made from coast to coast.

Godfrey and "Goldie" will appear at the State Fair Horse Show in exhibition, "dressage" riding, in which the horse is sent through intricate maneuvers without discernible instruction from the rider.

Godfrey has appeared with "Goldie" at a number of major horse shows in recent years, including the National Horse Show in New York and the International Horse Show in Chicago.

The State Fair's Series I Horse Show which opens Friday night, Oct. 7, will present five and three-gaited saddle horses and hunters and jumpers. The Series I show runs through Oct. 11.

The opening series will be followed by cutting horses and quarter horses competing in Series II, Oct. 12-16, and by the final series, Oct. 18-23, which will feature Shetland ponies, Palominos and Arabian horses.

TEXAS TEACHERS TO ASK NEXT LEGISLATURE FOR WAGE HIKE

Austin—A beginning salary of $4,000 for Texas public school teachers will be requested at the next session of the Legislature, a spokesman for the Texas State Teachers Association announced today.

This and other TSTA proposals are in line with recommendations made two years ago by the 254 county Hale-Aikin committees, and costs have risen since then, TSTA Pres. Mary Alexander of Palestine said.

Mrs. Alexander made these points:

The Gilmer-Aikin Minimum Foundation School Program has not been changed since 1949, except for two modest teacher pay raises, and cost factors then are unrealistic now.

State increases in Texas teacher salary in the last ten years are the lowest in the nation.

In one proposed bill, TSTA will ask the Texas Legislature to strengthen the three basic parts of the Gilmer-Aikin program—teacher pay, transportation, and maintenance and operation—as follows:

Provide an annual salary of $4,014 for a beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree (now $3,204) and $4,239 for an M.A. degree (now $3,429).

Annual salary increments of $108 per year (now $54) with ten increments for bachelor's degree teachers and 17 for the master's degree.

Add $380 per school bus to help pay increased transportation costs for school children.

Increase to $500 per teacher the allowance for maintenance and operation of school plant and program (now $350-$400).

Larger cities, and other areas with rapidly expanding population, would especially benefit from a TSTA proposal to allot State aid for teaching personnel on the basis of the current year's attendance instead of last year's. This would save local taxpayers at least $8 million the first year, Mrs. Alexander noted.

Other legislative requests by TSTA call for: five days sick leave annually for teachers, cumulative to 30 days; additional special service teachers and principals; and regional film and audio-visual libraries.

Total cost of these proposals to strengthen the school program is estimated at $100 million annually, of which the State would pay approximately $80 million and local districts $20 million.

"Texas schools are as good as they are largely because local districts have steadily increased their financial support and dedicated teachers continue to perform efficiently at a personal sacrifice in income," the TSTA president declared.

"If children are to receive a good education," she added, "good teachers must instruct them and teaching supplies and materials must be available for their use."

PICNIC SKILLET DINNER

What is a picnic?
Webster defines a picnic as: "An excursion or pleasure party the food for which is usually provided by members of the group and is eaten in the open air."

With their usual disregard for Mr. Webster's precision, Americans have expanded this definition to include any meal eaten under casual circumstances, according to the Texas Beef Council. In Texas, a picnic may vary from one battered sandwich eaten on the creek bank during a lull in crawdad fishing to a barbecue with a guest list numbering several thousand.

The Beef Council has found that a picnic requires three elements: good food, good friends, and a casual setting. This casual setting, however, carries a warning for hostesses: prepare large servings, because fresh air and good companionships are great appetite whetters.

This Skillet Dinner is equally delicious served on the patio or at the lake. These proportions make 4 servings.

- SKILLET DINNER
- 1 pound ground beef
 - 3/4 teaspoon Ac'cent (monosodium glutamate)
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, divided
 - 2/3 cup fine dry bread crumbs
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper, divided
 - 2/3 cup evaporated milk
 - 1/4 cup shortening
 - 1/4 cup chopped onion
 - 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
 - 1 can (1-pound) whole kernel corn
 - 1 can (1-pound) tomatoes
- Break up meat with fork in mixing bowl. Sprinkle Ac'cent and 3/4 teaspoon of the salt over the entire surface of meat. Toss gently with fork to distribute seasoning. Add bread crumbs, 1/8 teaspoon of the pepper and evaporated milk; mix and form into large patty. Brown meat in hot shortening on all sides. Add onion and green pepper; cook until tender. Drain tomato and corn liquid into skillet; simmer until liquid is reduced to about 1/4 cup. Add tomatoes, corn, remaining 3/4 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper; heat to serving temperature.

Along with some 4,500 other independent businessmen who have John Deere dealer franchises in the United States and Canada, he will fly to Dallas, Texas, the last week in August for the biggest sales meeting of its type ever held.

Sixteen United States and Canadian airlines will cooperate in air-lifting the 4,500 dealers and 1,500 other persons to Dallas within a 24-hour period. It will be the first time any manufacturer will utilize as many airplanes, reserve as many accommodations, and arrange for as many meals for a single group at one time.

The meeting has been called to show dealers the new line of John Deere Tractors and equipment. Announcement was made this week that the new tractors will be put on the market in late September.

Carlton who owns and operates the Carlton Implement Co. will fly to Dallas Aug. 29 for the one-day sales meeting that will be held the following day. At the Fairgrounds, the largest display of any one power equipment manufacturer's products ever to be exhibited at one place will be staged. More than 230 tractors and 270 pieces of equipment will be used in the display.

The dealers will stage their own public showings of the new tractors and equipment after they return to their home communities.

W. C. Russell on Committee to Name Executive Officers

W. C. Russell, prominent Hamlin Baptist layman, has been named a member of a committee to nominate Executive Board members of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Members of the nominating committee, appointed each year by the denomination's committee on committees, will nominate Baptist leaders to fill vacancies on the Executive Board.

Messengers to the annual state Baptist convention in Lubbock Oct. 31-Nov. 2, will elect the trustees during the annual business.

The 191-member Executive Board consists of pastors, laymen and women from throughout the state. It meets four times a year to conduct the denomination's business between sessions.

The board's primary purpose is to promote all phases of Texas Baptist missions, both at home and abroad, and to teach, enlist and train in Christian stewardship and service in all areas of life.

Members of the Board serve as representatives for more than 1 1/2 million Baptists who are members of the denomination's 3,857 churches.

Letter to Editor...

I am writing you about my youngest son, Ancie Gray Griffin, who is in California. He is in the hospital out there and will be there until the last of August or later. He will then be confined to his home for six months, but will be allowed to go for a short ride in January. He injured his back for the second time April 19 and has undergone a serious operation. Two discs were removed and a bone from his hip was taken to fuse the vertebrae together.

He has lived in California since he got out of the navy. He was a carpenter for seven years before the first injury when he was thrown from a horse he was breaking. He has been told now that he would be unable to continue his carpenter work.

Ancie G. wants all his old friends to write him, he says it surely is a lonely place, especially when he can't get around.

His address is Ancie G. Griffin, West 2A-Room 204, Palo Alto Stanford Hospital, Palo Alto, California.

Thanking you, I am his mother, Mrs. D. F. Griffin at 228 NE Ave. A, City.

Electric co-ops mean
PPPP
PARTNERSHIP POWER FOR PROGRESS

Nearly 400,000 Texas Families are partners in a noble undertaking that celebrates its silver anniversary this year.

They are the member-owners of the electric cooperatives that serve the rural areas of the Lone Star State. They borrowed money at interest to build their own electric systems. They created a multi-billion dollar market for electric appliances with main street merchants. They brought the blessings of electricity to areas that might still be dark had it not been for the cooperative effort. They accomplished these wonderful things while repaying principal and interest on their loans... often ahead of schedule.

The electric cooperatives of Texas can point with pride to an efficient, dependable, electric service providing Partnership Power For Progress.

Two voting boxes were eliminated through consolidation when the Jones County Commissioners Court met Monday, August 8, at Anson, according to County Judge H. G. Andrews Jr.

State law provides that this action can be taken only in the August meeting. Jones County has several small boxes and candidates for office have complained that maintaining these low-voting boxes adds to cost of holding elections.

Through the court's action, one-half of the territory of Delk went east to Centerline and one half of the Swan Chapel box went to Anson and one-half to Avoca.

In the first primary, 62 votes were cast at Delk while 42 were polled at Centerline. Only 21 voted at Swan Chapel. The county now will have 27 voting boxes.

Commissioners set a budget hearing for Aug. 31 in the county judge's office between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Contract with the government on distribution of surplus commodities to the needy also was renewed.

Read to the meeting was a notice from the federal government that because of a shortage of funds, the county will have to pay an additional

Oscar DePriest Enrollment Hits 187. More Expected

Enrollment at Oscar DePriest School has reached a total of 187, which is 14 more than the total for last year. About thirty more are expected to enroll, according to I. J. Starr, principal. He urged parents of children who have not been enrolled to get their children entered in school. These children should be enrolled so that the book inventory can be completed.

When all students are enrolled the school number will exceed last year's total by about 40 students.

A meeting of the faculty with Superintendent Cook was held last Wednesday when plans were made for an improved curriculum of the school. Meetings will be held throughout the year on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 4 p.m. New courses that have been added are trigonometry, junior business education, health and physiology and chemistry.

'HERCULES UNCHAINED' COMING SUNDAY TO BOTH THEATRES

The producer and the director of "Hercules Unchained," which comes Sunday to the Hamlin Theatres, are fellow-enthusiasts about two highly specialized subjects—Greek mythology and the modern motion picture. In the new film made in Dyaliscope, in Eastman Color by Pathe, these two common interests were fused in a labor of love.

Bruno Vailati is the producer, Pietro Francisci the director. It was Francisci who, seeing Steve Reeves in a small role in a picture called "Athena," decided that there was the young chap who would make a convincing Hercules. Mr. Francisci, as the creator of many historical films ("Anthony of Padua," "The Lion of Amalfi," "The Queen of Sheba," "Attila") has an eye for the pageant of the past, and also a technical knowledge of film-making which has won him many laurels for documentaries as well as feature-length productions.

For the exciting plot of "Hercules Unchained" Francisci, who collaborated on the script with Ennio de Concini has drawn on the works of Sophocles and Aeschylus as well as the earliest primitive legends of the Greek gods and heroes. But he has handled them with a modern touch. "As I love classic literature," he says, "I respect the sources; as a movie director, I keep in mind what I want to convey to an audience of today. Thus, in the picture, Hercules is no longer an immortal. By making him a human among humans I gave him drama, a reason to live. Because he is able to suffer, to love, to undergo deadly perils, Hercules can savor life, its sweetness and its bitterness."

A notable cast supports Steve Reeves in "Hercules Unchained," which is presented by Joseph E. Levine and distributed by Warner Bros. Some of the headliners are Sylvia Koscina, Sylvia Lopez, Primo Carnera, Carlo D'Angelo, Patrizia della Rovere, Gabriele Antonini, Andrea Fantasia and many more.

marked months of work by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Thousands of hand-soldered connections were required to interconnect all the telephones in the system, and then all equipment had to be tested to make sure it worked perfectly.

Cost of the new dial system was estimated at a gross amount of more than $200,000. The new dial system was manufactured and installed by the Western Electric Company. The new equipment provides Hamlin with a modern, up-to-the-minute system which is one of the finest in the country.

Southwestern Telephone Co. officials here for the change-over were Gene Adkisson, district manager, Mrs. Adkisson, Dick Storch, head repeaterman and Mrs. Storch, and Bob Neptune, assistant traffic superintendent all of Sweetwater. From Abilene, H. B. Batesman, district plant superintendent, and his son; Ken Mered-

Preventing infestations of turkey flocks by external parasites can mean extra dollars to produce at market time, say F. Z. Beanblossom, extension poultry marketing specialist. Skin blemishes caused by parasites can and will lower the market grade of turkeys and the specialist urges growers to prevent infestations rather than depend upon treatment to keep down damages.
